

FARIDA BEDWEI

Ghanain Software Engineer

1979-Present

In 2013, Farida Bewei was named the most influential woman in business and government in Africa for the financial sector by South Africa's CEO Magazine.

She is proud of her work in the cloud and microfinance that is currently being used in over 130 companies in Ghana.

Bedwei is diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy and empowers other women with cerebral palsy to dream big and achieve great heights.

FARIDA BEDWEI

Ghanain Software Engineer

1979-Present

In 2013, Farida Bewei was named the most influential woman in business and government in Africa for the financial sector by South Africa's CEO Magazine.

She is proud of her work in the cloud and microfinance that is currently being used in over 130 companies in Ghana.

Bedwei is diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy and empowers other women with cerebral palsy to dream big and achieve great heights.